

BELTANE

april 30 - may 1

A celebration of love and life. It marks the midpoint between spring and summer and represents the abundance and light that comes with the return of the sun. As a common time of year for weddings and hand-fastings, Beltane is heavily associated with love, fertility, and sex.

Altar Decorations

foraged items, flowers, herbs, candles, cauldrons, mini maypole, sticks, seeds, antlers, baskets, wreathes, love notes

CORRESPONDENCES

Colors

red, white, green, bright blue, pink, yellow

Crystals

emerald, garnet, malachite, rose quartz, tourmaline, tiger's eye

Animals

bees, cats, cattle, doves, frogs, goats, rabbits, swallows, swans, leopards

Herbs

coriander, curry, crocus, daffodil, dandelion, dragon's blood, fern,
flaxseed, hawthorn, nettle, paprika,
primrose, snapdragon, peach, rose,
vanilla

Deities

Artemis, Aphrodite, Bacchus, Bes, Brigid, Cernnunos, Danu, Diana, Dionysus, Flora, Gaia, Hera, Maeve, Pan, Tanit

THEMES & SYMBOLS

Togetherness	Maypole
Love	Bonfires
Life	Fire
Abundance	Flowers
Passion	Wreathes
Sexuality	Cups
Companionship	Acorns
Nature	Twigs

HOW TO CELEBRATE

Beltane is a time to celebrate life and all its pleasures. Indulge in guilty pleasures and let go of the stress of modernity. Remember that we are all just animals and take the day to be free. Here are some activities to get you in the spirit:

- Go on a nature walk
- Enjoy pleasures
- Dance & sing
- Make flower crowns
- Make a fire/bonfire
- Practice sexual wellness

Spell & Ritual Ideas

Make magical tools, protection magic, love spells, fertility rituals, hand-fasting, creativity spells, art magic, fire magic, candle spells, sex magic, prosperity rituals, self-love baths.